Grassland School Permission Form - Badminton Tournament

ELEMENTS OF RISK

Sport activities, such as badminton, involve certain elements of risk. Injuries may occur while participating in these activities. The following list includes, but is not limited to examples of the types of injury which may result from leaving the school grounds.

- Accidents that may occur while participating in this activity (sprains, breaks, etc).
- Traffic accidents that may occur while traveling by bus.
- Pedestrian injuries that may occur while walking to/from the bus.
- Pedestrian injuries that may occur while walking/climbing stairs.

The risk of sustaining these types of injuries result from the nature of the activity and can occur without fault of either the student, or the school board, its employees/agents or the facility where the activity is taking place. By choosing to take part in this activity, you are accepting the risk that you/your child may be injured. The chance of an injury occurring can be reduced by carefully following instruction at all times while engaged in the activity.

I, the Parent/Legal Guardian, have read the above, I understand that there are risks associated with participating in the program/activity described above. I assume responsibility to do all within our influence to reduce and eliminate those risks. I have read the above form and understand there are risks associated by participating in the activity as described, and assuming the risks associated with doing so.
